поэтому и против него надо читерить.я так считаю) можно конечно играть и честно и не париться с прогой,но тогда ты скорее всего проиграешь

так что в этом никто и не признается

я не буду ни в чем тебе признаваться.вдруг сдашь меня и меня в ЕЛ забанят за это.хотя я ниче не сделал

но ты сама все понимаешь. 😊 а так я играю честно

Translation:

Sandra: So, also you cheated against him, because you found it wrong to play fair if he cheats.

Alexander: Well, Lamaza always cheats.

Sandra: I know. That's why some players consider it fine to cheat against him, playing fair against others.

Alexander: That's why he must be cheated against, I think. Of course you can play fair, not bothering using a program, but then you will most likely lose. What do you think?

Sandra: I believe that Lamaza must be banned and that all remaining players must play fair.

Alexander: Yeah, but Lamaza is not banned. Rafan cheats just like Lamaza.

Sandra: To be honest, I would not cheat against Lamaza (if I played against him), even knowing he uses a program. However, I find it difficult to criticise you if Lamaza is the only player you cheated against.

Alexander: I know who cheated against him.

Sandra: Who did that?

Alexander: Otherwise they play fair, and no one suspects them (of cheating). So no one will confess. I will not confess anything here. Who knows, maybe you will sell me out. Maybe I will get banned from the Euroleague for that, despite that I did not do anything (morally wrong). You perfectly understand everything on your own ;) Otherwise I play fair.
